1894-1895.

The year 1894 has passed into history. It was a year long to be remembered. There was general business and industrial stagnation during its reign. Commercial houses of long standing, which were supposed to be, and would be under ordinary circumstances, sound and solvent, went to the wall in the great crash. Industrial armies, composed of men of all trades and occupations who were in enforced idleness because of the general depression, marched through the country begging for bread. These armies in some instances took possession of trains, and in Utah, Colorado and other places were treated as invaders and marched out of the States and Territories under escort. There were strikes in the coal mines extending from Pennsylvania south to Alabama and west to Colorado, and strikes on the railroads all over the country. Not only the militia of several States, but the United States army were called out to assist railroad companies in running their trains and peaceable citizens in law-abiding communities were treated as enemies of the Government because of their disapproval of the methods of the Pullman and other corporations. All these things, however, are a matter of history and it is sincerely hoped that the people of the United States will never see their like again.

The year 1895 has dawned upon us, young, vigorous and hope-inspiring. It brings promise of better times than the year just past. The commercial papers note business improvements in nearly all parts of the country as compared with a year ago, and there are reasonable hopes of their continuance. We have vast and varied undeveloped resources which only require capital to make them profitable. Money, they tell us, is abundant in the large commercial centers and only awaits a restoration of confidence to seek investments other than Government bonds and gilt-edge securities. This money will not lie idle much longer awaiting such investments as its owners desire to derive profit from it. The lethargy which now prevails will in the near future give way to enterprise and the opening of new industries will furnish employment to those who last year sought remunerative labor in vain.

The future of Nevada seems brighter. There is a probability of a better demand for silver, which, independent of legislation, may advance its price, and as farm products share the fate of the metal wheat, wool and other Nevada products will command better prices and there will then be inducements to reclaim more lands and increase the agricultural area of Nevada. Hoping that the better times which all look for will soon arrive the JOURNAL wishes each and every citizen of the Sagebrush State, regardless of age, sex or politics, a happy and prosperous year.

THE CHINESE INDEMNITY.

There is some speculation among flaneurs in Washington and in New York as to whether the Chinese indemnity to Japan will be paid in silver or in gold. Some are of the opinion that China may be a bidder for the surplus of silver in the United States. It is not believed that this country could furnish all the silver required as it would take the product of the mines for several years. The treasury officials believe the indemnity will be arranged on a gold basis, and it doubtless will if the Gold Trust can determine the matter.

It is conceded that there is not enough free and uncoined silver in the world to pay one-fourth of the $200,000,000 that Japan is expected to exact of China. The uncoined bullion in the United States Treasury is held as security for the payment of Treasury notes issued in exchange for it and which are invariably redeemed in gold by the Secretary of the Treasury. This bullion could not be disposed of without a special act of Congress is passed to authorize its sale. It is as useless as its bulk in cobble stones, as the Secretary of the Treasury will not have it coined and the notes issued for its purchase are, as stated, redeemed in gold. If it could be disposed of to China or any other country it would remove a standing menace to free coinage.

If the Chinese indemnity is to be paid in gold it will probably drain the Treasury of that coin and cause another issue of bonds to replenish it. As gold will be even scarcer than it is now, as very little of that coin that reaches China or Japan ever returns, the bonds may have to be sold at a discount. That, of course, would suit the Gold Trust, and if it has a say in determining which metal the Chinese will have to pay, it is almost certain to favor gold. If, however, the indemnity is to be paid in silver it will enhance the price of the metal and may be the means of restoring free coinage and prosperity to the country.

NEW YEAR'S DAY.

Ancient and modern civilized people, while differing as to the day from which they reckoned the beginning of the year, have agreed in distinguishing it by special festivities. The Romans dedicated the day to Janus. They exchanged kindly greetings and wishes and sent presents to their kinsfolk, friends and acquaintances. The cívids distributed branches of the sacred mistletoe as New Year's gifts among the people. The Saxons observed the festivals with feastings and sending gifts. The Hebrews celebrate their New Year's festival with appropriate ceremonies. Among the Chinese the celebration of the New Year continues for three days and is the greatest festival of the year. In the United States the day is observed as a holiday. No business is transacted by the State, National, county or municipal governments. Kindly greetings are exchanged, and while presents are yet sent to friends and acquaintances, the custom is not so general as formerly. It is a day for making new resolutions, many of which last but a day and very few of which are kept for a year, but it is also a day of rejoicing and festivity, and the JOURNAL hopes that this particular New Year's day will be the beginning of a happy and prosperous year for all.

England to Memorialize President Cleveland and Congress.

LONDON, December 31.—The Daily News says the signatures to a memorial which William R. Creamer, M. P., will present to Mr. Cleveland and the American Congress in favor of an arbitration treaty between Great Britain and the United States are those of official members of the House of Commons. Three hundred and forty-five members signed the memorial and the number would have been increased had the members of the Government been invited to sign it. Most of the Liberal and Irish and a fair number of the Unionist members signed.

Edward Shepherd, Harrisburg, Ill., had a running sore on his leg of eight years' standing. Used three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and his leg is sound and well. John Speaker, Cawatha, O., had five large fever sores on his leg and doctors said he was incurable. One bottle of Electric Bitters and one box Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured him entirely. Sold at S. J. Hodgkinson's drug store.

A Jealous Husband Shot.
SACRAMENTO, December 31.—Charles A. Eldridge fired four pistol shots at George Booles, a harnessmaker, at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon in a room in the Alta lodging house. Two of the shots took effect. One entered Booles' abdomen and came out below the heart. The other entered the right leg. The physician said the wounded man may say the first shot will not necessarily prove fatal, but Booles' chances of recovery are not considered good.

Booles went to the lodging house and found his wife in young Eldridge's room. Eldridge at the time was writing at the center table, and as her husband entered Mrs. Booles walked up to Eldridge, and with the remark, "I hear you are going to throw me out of the house," struck him on the side of his face with his fist. Eldridge was knocked over against a trunk and claimed that he saw Booles make a movement as though to draw a revolver.

Booles was unarmed, but Eldridge drew a revolver and fired, the ball entering the abdomen of Booles and ranging upward, coming out of the breast just above the heart. The next two shots found lodgement in the walls of the room, while a fourth passed through the side of Booles' right leg. After the shooting Eldridge came down on the street, his face covered with blood, and acknowledging what he had done was arrested and taken to jail.

At the jail Eldridge asserted that he was in fear of his life when he drew his revolver. He also firmly denied that anything wrong had ever happened between himself and Mrs. Booles which should cause the attack of this afternoon. Mrs. Booles confirms the story told by Eldridge, but Mr. Shaw, who is inclined to take her son-in-law's side of the case.

Eldridge, the man that did the shooting, is known throughout the Coast as a professional roller skater, the champion of the Coast.

Brings comfort and improvement and tends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many, who live better and others and enjoy life more, with expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession because it acts on the kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all drug-

"Almost as Palatable as Milk"

This is a fact with regard to Scott's Emulsion of Liver Oil. The difference between the oil, in its present state, is very apparent. In you detect no fish-oil taste. As it is a help to digestion there is no after effect except good effect. Keep in mind that Scott's Emulsion is the best promoter of flesh and strength known to science.

PEOPLE'S PARTY PLATFORM.

An Address to the People—Free Coinage of Gold Principle—The Declaration Received with Confidence.

The following address to the people was unanimously adopted by the St. Louis conference:

The National Committee of the People's party sends greeting to its constituency throughout the United States.

The rapid increase of our vote in every part of the Union and the startling events of the past two years vividly justify the existence of and necessity for the People's party. The contention of the party that one of the great needs of this country has been and is an enlarged volume of circulating medium is now practically conceded by all parties and by the Government.

The gold power and banking interests are insisting through the President and his Secretary of the Treasury that the enlarged issue of our money supply shall be given exclusively into the hands of the banks; that silver shall be excluded, all treasury notes retired, and that gold alone shall be a legal tender, thus making the monetary question an issue that must be met at once.

Within the present year the corporations, growth arrogant because of the vast possessions of wealth and the exercise of unconstitutional powers, have made war upon the people and induced the Federal courts to exercise in their interest unusual and arbitrary powers, induced the invasion of the States by Federal troops without the requests of either the Executive of such States or the Legislature thereof, and are at this time through a recreant Administration and a treacherous Congress, attempting to clothe railroad corporations, by means of a pooling bill, with power to further and more systematically rob and plunder the people, and having already deprived the people of access to the silver mines of the country as an independent source of money supply, are now, in the interest of a banking oligarchy, endeavoring to deprive them of the right to have their Government, in the exercise of its constitutional power, issue the money of the nation and control its volume.

In the opinion of your committee these events are startling, subversive of the liberty of the citizen and destructive of business and social security; and, adhering to the Omaha platform in all its integrity, your committee insists upon the restoration of the coins of gold and silver as it existed prior to 1873—at the ratio of 16 to 1—without regard to the action of any other nation, and that all paper money shall be issued by the general government without the intervention of banks of issue, the same to be a full legal tender.

We also declare our implacable hostility to the further issuance of interest-bearing bonds.

We denounce the pooling bill as a move toward completing the monopoly of transportation, and demand that instead Congress proceed to bring the railroads under government ownership.

The power given Congress by the Constitution, "to provide for the calling forth of the militia to execute the laws of the Union, to suppress insurrections, to repel invasions," does not warrant the Government in making use of a standing army in aiding monopolies in the oppression of the public and their employees. When free men unsheathe the sword it should be to strike for liberty, not for despotism, nor to uphold privileged monopolies in the oppression of the poor. We ask the people to forget all past political differences and unite with us in a common purpose to rescue the Government from the control of monopolists and concentrated wealth; to limit the powers of perpetuation by curtailing their privileges, and to secure the rights of free speech, a free press and trial by jury—all rules, regulations and judicial dicta in derogation of either of which are arbitrary, unconstitutional and not to be tolerated by a free people.

In Olden Times.

On this day last year the remainder of the A. R. U. men who returned to work after the strike were notified that the railroad company had decided to dispense with their services. This relieved nine or ten men from work and practically wiped out every striker in the vicinity. The men will seek new fields and pastures, some now and others when gentle spring opens.—Wadsworth Dispatch.

ABSOLUTELY PURECHRISTMAS IN PARADISE.

An Old Fashioned Celebration at Which All the Children Were Provided For.

PARADISE VALLEY, Nev.

December 25, 1894.

STATE JOURNAL—A feature of Paradise Valley is its Christmas exercises, the last occurring Monday evening, the 24th, under the auspices of the patrons of the public school.

The finance committee, Miss Cylthie Bradshaw and Miss Alice Byrnes, collected a goodly sum with which a tree, decorations and an abundance of candy and nuts were bought by the acting purchasing committee, Mrs. Conner and Mr. Byrnes, who did their work with such good judgment that something was provided for everyone.

The tree decorators, Mrs. Holt, Messrs. Denckla and J. Byrnes, Jr., made the tree resplendent with glittering cord, strings of popped corn, dolls and all the conceivable presents brought in for a Christmas tree. But before the tree could be decorated, Messrs. Pierce, Schwartz and Freemarshall saw that a tree was provided.

The ball decorators—we had the Little Hall—Messrs. Kirchner and Melody, brightened up things wonderfully with appropriate mottoes artistically arranged and bunting used with good effect.

The choruses by the school led by Miss Katie Freemont and Miss Cylthie Bradshaw, with Miss Fannie Case at the organ, were well rendered.

The litany exercises grew a little monotonous owing to the many long and inappropriate recitations, but everything grew brighter as the aged Santa Claus arrived with jingling of bells and snowy beard. He grasped the hands of the little ones in merry greeting. It was a happy band from that time till the close.

Great praise is due the President of "Tree Association" for the executive ability she displayed in arranging for the happiness and entertainment of both patrons and pupils.

The Board, by the order of W. P. McLaughlin and J. F. Crosby, allowed the bill of O. Evans for extra work as clerk of the town board of Reno, Nevada.

Geo. Alt voted against allowing the bill of O. Evans for extra clerical work, to limit the powers of perpetuation by curtailing their privileges, and to secure the rights of free speech, a free press and trial by jury—all rules, regulations and judicial dicta in derogation of either of which are arbitrary, unconstitutional and not to be tolerated by a free people.
